Explanation

»Jesus Christ and the consciousness of Sananda are ONE! Therefore it is the ONE consciousness that takes effect through this book.«

At the beginning, I would like to mention, and I thank my editor, that she pointed this out to me, so that the differently signed chapters by HIM (by Jesus or Sananda) do not confuse you. It is always HE who talks to us, and his eternal name, his vibrational name, is Sananda.

Every human Being carries such an eternal name, but is in most cases unknown to us. We bring our multidimensional reality to the surface through this name, and therefore our true Being is apparent to all in the universe. The personal signature, whereby we express our entire potential!

»Jesus of Nazareth«, the Jesus, who is familiar to us and for 2000 years played such a significant role in the history of mankind, therefore is the incarnation of Sananda, the blissfully unconditional Love from eternity.

The Christ Consciousness has been anchored on earth through Jesus (therefore Jesus Christ), in order to enable for every human Being access to his I AM presence. Both expressions (Christ Consciousness and the I AM) describe the unconditional Love that for us here on earth is called for to realize.

Therefore HE has come and due to his life as a human Being among humans, the all-penetrating power of love is accessible to all human Beings since then, so that we, each one of us, awaken into our divinity. Into the Christ Consciousness and into our I AM presence.

That was the meaning of Jesus's life and work on earth, and through the omnipresent consciousness of Sananda, this assignment has been fulfilled. This book describes HIS life in Jerusalem, therefore he signs quite often with Jesus Christ, also so that we may easily recognize HIM, because his name is very familiar to us. Where the facts of the told story are less important, the comprehensive consciousness of Sananda comes forward, and therefore those chapters are signed accordingly.

In summary, we experience in this biography Jesus and his omnipresent loving consciousness that is expressed in the name of Sananda. I interpret this as a small »task« for us so that we may also gradually release our fixed opinions of »Jesus of Nazareth« in that respect. So that we direct our attention to the »carrier essence«, the essence, whereby Jesus was who he is.

Since Eternity, from Eternity and in Eternity.

Jesus Christ or Sananda?

It is always ONE power that touches you, the ONE who accompanies you, the ONE consciousness that loves you immensely.

The journey through Jesus's life is exciting and for some human Being may also be shocking, because the actual events strongly deviate from the story we were told so far. More than ever the innocence of humanity will be the theme in the final part.

But everyone who starts on this path will be richly gifted – with the knowledge that liberates us and lifts all guilt from our shoulders.

A truly exciting journey is again ahead of you.

In Love

Introduction

It was a time of great changes.

Human suffering, misery, despair and the lack of any consciousness about the true issues of life were widely distributed. Wars, violence and daily rudeness were realities, and a life free of it was inconceivable.

I was born into this time in order to anchor a totally new energy on earth – the Love.

In order to bring new vistas of things into the rigid structures and to human Beings separated from Oneness. And even though religions, confessions and divine worship were ordinary, there was a lack of inner ability to raise one's consciousness and to look beyond one's limitations.

My birth has been prophesied.

A lot has been written, much has been assumed, and yet much is not correct and has been authored according to conditions then prevailing.

I am Jesus Christ, and my message is then as today: Love one another, become capable of loving unconditionally in order to go into God's arms.

This is the path of the King and you find fulfillment only in it. Do justice to your destiny and live the universal realization of Love.

I have come and have lived among human Beings and with human Beings in order to bring this energy unto earth. Much is not known and is not reported as it really happened and is. Therefore, these transmissions shall adjust, bring new perspectives about the events and enable a new understanding.

The Earth is in transformation.

And the time is ripe to bring clarity and truth to the events of my life on earth.

All deceptions fall off, and the Light brings everything out into the open what often over a very long time has waited for the return.

I am amongst you, and the salvation of mankind and earth happen – NOW.

I am amongst you and in your heart, as you recognize, as you open yourself to this truth. Not in a faraway time and not in the Beyond!

The healing of Planet Earth is in full force and my reappearance an existing fact.

Blessed are those who recognize me.

Blessed are those who see me.

Blessed are those who have an open heart.

Blessed are those who welcome me.

Blessed are those who enter into eternal Life.

Blessed are those who submit to this process of transformation.

Blessed are those who awaken.

Blessed are those who unveil their true essence to look into God's almightiness and to recognize their own divinity.

Blessed are those who go forth and love who are where there is darkness still, and who bring light to those who are still afraid of it.

Blessed are those who carry joy inside, who peacefully leave traces behind in God's Oneness. For the benefit of mankind and for the recovery of Mother Earth.

Therefore, wake up, beloved child of humanity, and recognize that the time of my reappearance has come.

Be ready to receive me as I come.

Hear my knocks and open your door.

So that I may enter your home, and so that you may ascend in purity and in full consciousness of your power, and so that you ignite your light according to your true destiny.

Praise to he who comes.

I am amongst you.

Now and in Eternity

Prologue

I have come to sow peace, joy and Love. But what have you made out of it?

Instead of peace there are wars, instead of joy there is suffering and instead of Love there is Hate. You were deceived generation for generation and you were kept far from my true message.

Suffering was lifted to a great necessity so that human Beings believed that suffering is the only way to attain holiness. My death on the cross was put in front of your eyes as an example, and your spirituality was supposed to find reflection in this suffering.

You were deceived, beloved Mankind. Thoroughly and knowingly cheated.

My death on the cross never happened!

This information is very important so that you stop to identify yourselves with this suffering. Suffering does not lead to salvation that so many of you strive for.

Beloved children of Mankind, I neither died on the cross nor have I been crucified. The scriptures of Peter bear witness of what has been withheld from you. It is a great error in your history, and those who are responsible for it have loaded a great burden on themselves. As a result of this erroneous description of my life and my death, an infinite amount of suffering came to earth.

Suffering was supposed to ennoble you and be noble. But it is destructive and causing so much pain, but the whole earth has been covered by it. Wars were waged in the name of suffering and in the name of the Cross; all joy was taken from you. The possibility of peace was withheld from you, and hate has been and still is a reality on earth.

How many wars, how much destruction of life on earth and how much personal suffering were in your daily life!

This happens because you believed in the wrong image of my message for hundreds of years.

Also you were robbed of the joy in the beauty of sexuality and the freedom to live it out of the heart. It was declared to you that this is something indecent, something animalistic. You were and you are still asked to kill the sexuality in you. And again you shall force yourself, and again suffering is created where there should be joy.

The church is a man-made institution. It has not been my will to create a society that holds human Beings in suffering, lack of joy and fear.

The historical events are known, and the foundation of the Roman Catholic Church carries the stamp of human Beings, and not my seals.

The so-called key transfer to Peter has never happened!

Also the description that I was never married is false!

Many of my companions at that time were women. Besides my mother Mary, my wife Mary Magdalene and women, who were close to my disciples. It was a mixed community.

For a man at that time and in this religious, cultural reality it was fully customary and nearly required to get married. We were meant for each other, and in this life on earth our love fully blossomed.

Miriam from Bethany was not a whore and not a sinner, as people like to portray her. She was and is a high initiate of Life, and at that time we were intimately joined together.

The wedding at Cana was our wedding.
I was her bridegroom and she was my bride.

How important this information is, and how much it has been missing until now from earth and foremost from human Beings with a strong catholic background. The most natural form of relationship on earth, the one between a man and a woman, has been made maggoty for you, and you were kept far away from the joy of such a relationship. Without this joy you could not blossom, and therefore you were cheated out of it.

I tell you this so that you know and now it is time that all lies come out into the light. Also the untruths, the false portrayals and conscious lies about my life on earth two thousand years ago. There is so much that needs clarification and a new consideration, and this transmission will dissolve old pictures of mine and will bring a new consciousness.

Finally the freedom that many human Beings yearned for, the peace, the joy and love.

And it was always the Love that accompanied me.

My heart had so much of it, and everywhere it exuded. Just by itself. Many »miracles« simply happened, when human Beings saw me. The Light that emanated from me healed all and everyone, as the personal development allowed for it.

I travelled a lot, and we went from location to location. For my companions, the disciples, the days were always exciting and full of surprises. I myself was open, and like a channel the Light of the Father flowed through me.

It was my assignment to bring Light and Love, and to anchor these energy qualities in the earth.

But the time and the events in Jerusalem came to a crisis, and so the day came when I left Jerusalem.

The last Supper points to that fact.

It was a festivity of departure, and all were gathered. We ate dates and figs and shared the bread. It was my farewell from my friends and life companions. Also from my wife and my mother. There were not just twelve at this festivity, but substantially more, and all came to say goodbye. The history let you believe that after that my crucifixion happened.

All these descriptions are untrue and false!

Still before I began to work publicly, something happened that touched me profoundly and most painfully: the decapitation of my beloved John the Baptist. I loved him so much, and it happened very quickly. It was clear to me that my ministry in this area would be of limited duration. And it is true, it took about three years before I said goodbye and over many paths came to India, at the border to Nepal.

My message was full of Love and joy. Full of gusto and of deep divine inspiration. And many have understood these, but many did not partake in these insights. Until today.

Now mankind receives the opportunity to attain new information about the past events. So that you may accept, what I had given you already then.

Begin with your own discovery and find joy and love.

This message is unchanged, and due to these facts you can easier liberate yourself from the old energies causing so much suffering.

There is so much more that is withheld from you, but now let's call it an end. The whole truth is now given to you. The truth regarding the events how they have actually happened, and not what was conveyed to you so far.

In the next chapters you will experience much about my words and my deeds and how they should be understood.

God is with you.

Birth and Childhood

Beloved Brothers and Sisters of the Light.

My heart is filled with joy that so much energy of love is in you. And this inner light shines ever more so that it visibly for us flows into the whole Universe.

Today I give you a view into the time of my birth, my childhood and the experience of life of my early years, in the life of Jesus on earth.

My birth had been prophesied and therefore my mother Mary knew out of which power the fruit in her belly grew from. And the stars pointed the way for the Wise Men to us in order to deliver their gifts of praise. This happened in the spring of the 4th year of your calendar.

My childhood went off without worrying and I breathed the healthy as well as loving environment of my parents. Even that we traveled frequently I always had the feeling of absolute safety and within me the trust in all that IS, was strengthened. So I grew up, my brothers were born and my sisters.

My first years were shaped in the feeling of love and the »having arrived« on earth.

My parents were fully conscious of their assignment and everywhere where it seemed necessary to them and when it was possible they accompanied me in a wonderful manner.

Slowly I was made aware of my assignments. Much was preordained by tradition, as I was from the house of David and this fact explains that I should adopt the title of a king. But until then there was still some time.

We write the year 12.
