Introduction to the Mandate

Jahn J Kassel

Matrix transforms into Light

It is time to wipe the slate clean – on all levels of this human civilization, on all levels on earth and for all levels in this world.

This time quality of transformation means a time of transparency. The hidden, the secret and the unbearable for mankind today reach human consciousness. Suppression mechanisms no longer function, the truth is not only tolerated by human Beings, instead it is longed for beyond all measures.

No matter which abysses are revealed and which crimes of the dark rulers of time have been committed, today the time has come in order to reveal these deeds and intentions and to face them in the light of truth.

Time accelerates, and never before were such steps of transformation possible: Steps, which are now taken by mankind.

It is the unique possibility to liberate now from all evil in this world, and mankind is now taking this possibility – mankind awakens.

Day of Truth

The day of truth comes closer and closer and in many places it has already come. For every attentive observer of time it is becoming quite obvious that the Light spreads, even though darkness does not want to yield voluntarily.

Yet this time quality means that darkness must yield:

- 1) Due to voluntary transformation into the Light.
- 2) Due to the instructions of the «Wise Ones of Old Days», who perform their service on earth or
- 3) At God's behest.

This process of revelations is already ongoing and it is confirmed by the fact that secrecy no longer functions. Nothing can be hidden any longer, and everything comes to light. The past months are an obvious proof for it and the coming months will surpass anything so far and will create new facts in this world.

On the soul level awakened mankind has mandated the revelation of all secret and dark structures, which acted in concealment and which did harm to the planet, as well as to all Life on the planet! This occurs now accordingly.

This is an urgent change, which occurs now.

And in order to enrich this change with new energy, every individual human Being is called, today, here and now, to retain his power of creation, to act according to the status as Creator God, and per decree and per mandate create the new world.

What on the soul level has already been decided a long time ago, must also take space on the level of human day to day consciousness, so that on all levels your divine will has been complied with.

Thereby the dark must appear, because the Light of truth is focused there, whereby everything is destroyed, dissolved or transformed.

This is a great unique time, wherein we have agreed to incarnate and we now find ourselves on the crossroads of time, whereby we strip off and leave the last 3D and 4D levels and the still affecting 3D and 4D, in order to enter into the fifth dimension of All-That-Is.

Effective Tools for Light Warriors

Today, here and now, it is necessary to finally remove the ground under the feet of the dark ones, and to bring to light their deeds and intentions. This occurs today, here and now in an efficient manner and the power has been taken from everyone in order to reverse this process.

The tools of the light warriors, in order to bring the darkness to the attention of the public become more and more effective, while the dark ones lose their possibilities in order to block this development.

Today, here and now it is necessary to eradicate evil, so that the good, the Light and Love can take hold in human hearts – in all human hearts, which have decided accordingly for themselves and have made this choice.

Therefore, due to the powerful tool of the mandate, we have today, here and now, the opportunity to bring to the attention of the world public any ever so hidden dark intention and deed of the Orion elite.

Whoever is willing today, whoever can bear the truth and thereby wants to heal self or the world, is now being invited to direct the Light toward those places, which are underexposed until today. These are places in the physical as well as subtle world, wherefrom dark energies emanate, and it is time to direct the Light ray from Heaven toward the conditions and the entities, which enact these.

Mandate as Creator God

Mandate Verbatim

I (say your name here)

mandate as Creator God and due to the power of my divine consciousness that all dark deeds and intentions, which until today remained hidden from the eyes of the world public come to the attention of the world public.

I mandate that this will occur now.

I mandate due to my divine willpower that the healing of the earth has the highest priority in this creation and that the end is finally being prepared for the dark game on this earth.

I mandate due to the power of my divine consciousness that all dark energies are being banned from this world!

This earth is a place of Light and a world of Love.

Pause...

I mandate as a selfconfident and divine entity that all dark powers will be held responsible for the now visible evil deeds against mankind. Forgiveness is possible on the foundation of insight and whoever avows with insight to one's misdeeds and transforms one's essence to light, shall be forgiven. Yet whoever continues to serve darkness, shall be banned from this world due to my mandate and on God's behest.

I mandate that entry to this earth, which now lifts up into the light, remains eternally denied for any dark power.

Pause...

I ask the ascended Masters, the Archangels and angels to take effect in this process with their healing Light, until everything has reached the Light, until the responsible ones have been held responsible – until forgiveness has been exercised, until mankind has been liberated and earth has been healed.

I empower my order:

Due to the power of my divine presence on earth the further presence of any dark power on this earth is forbidden!

Pause...

Today, here and now I am ready to see the truth and I am willing to accept in peace the hidden deeds and intentions of the dark forces.

I am willing to destroy the evil, which does not want to yield,
I am ready to forgive evil, which wants to transform.
I am ready for this service on behalf of life.

Pause...

My divine spirit guides my Light, my divine consciousness is revealed on this earth, my love is omnipresent.

Hereby this mandate for the complete disclosure of all dark intentions and deeds, for the recognition of the causes and the culprits, as well as the healing of human souls and the healing of this world, has been given.

All entities of darkness from now on have to follow these directions.

I am the Creator of the new Earth.

I am the Truth and Life.

I am that I am in God.

SUREIJA OM ISTHAR OM

(End of Mandate)

The Choice

It is done, it is mandated, it is decreed and it will occur. The energy is set free; the Light can now flow increasingly and reaches still so far hidden places on the physical and subtle level of this matrix.

This earth moves now in a new dynamic toward the Light and mankind heals with a new intensity. The confrontation with darkness enables new insights and affects in many human Beings that they turn away from darkness and that they sever and cut all connections to the dark rulers.

Nobody, who has seen the truth, which is revealed now, can do and will continue to do as before!

And each one has the choice:

- 1) To take flight from it or
- 2) To face it and oppose it.

Whoever encounters God's Light now has the choice:

- 1) To let oneself be entirely absorbed by it or
- 2) To turn away from it, just like someone seeking protection and healing turns away from the therapist, because he is afraid of any change in himself.

Today, here and now, it is mandated that no stone will remain on top of another, it is mandated that everything is revealed to mankind, everything that was still able to act in hiding.

Whoever recognizes the truth, names it and accepts it, whoever paves the way into the Light for the dark princes of this time or let them take the path toward their own destruction, is truly God's and at the same time a ruler over self.

The mandate for this time is given.

Life unfolds in a new manner, because mankind has decided to look behind the mask of the obvious and to see what is.

The fright does not emanate from darkness or the dark ones itself, instead from those human Beings, who subject self to it, freeze in fear and are not willing to cast their light into darkness.

The unknown and its underlying effect exercise the silent power over a fearful consciousness.

No open cruelty can send a human heart into fear like the covertly acting mechanisms of fear, whereby they are permanently experienced without being able to grasp them or to determine them.

Today, here and now, the concealed fears become visible and they will be overcome!

The mandate for this time is the means for it and affects that the truth appears on all levels. Reason for great joy is given, because in the coming weeks and months the upside down world will be adjusted.

Transparency precedes transformation.

We have entered the golden age on earth and we are today, here and now, given the assignment to establish the eternal kingdom of peace on earth.

We have waited and have expected, we have attained healings and we are ready to receive new healings.

From now on truth reigns, from now on the Light penetrates all areas of this world, from now on a new status is effective in this matrix:

In the light of world publicity the dark loses its power and evil will be extinguished. Due to the power of my divine consciousness this is announced to human Beings and it is mandated for this world.

Whoever is ready to receive eternal Life,
Receives it out of Creator's hands.

SUREIJA OM ISTHAR OM

I am the Way, the Truth and Life.

The Divine Self, the Light and the Love are revealed through me.

I am that I am.

Jahn J Kassl

Beloved Ones,

I pass on this mandate, so that it gets into the hands, which are determined for it.

Today it is essential that you act out of the power of your soul and let yourself be inspired and guided by your divine consciousness.

The earth is indeed in your care, as soon as you recognize how powerful you are due to the Light.

I am MASTER EL MORYA

Final Assignments

- 1) Repeat this mandate at any for you possible time and as it shows to you.
- 2) Translate this mandate into all languages in the world.
- 3) Pass these words on as a symbol of your self-determination, until it finds a hearing in the farthest village in this world, because nobody can affectively and permanently oppose the collective energy, which is based on the loving mandate of a Creator God. Evil will initially be weakened, until it dissolves entirely. Mandate this as self-conscious awakened Creator Gods in human form, who have overcome human limitations.

What can we do in order to give the events in this time a totally new direction?
Here is the tool!

Thereby we save the world, thereby we enter into Heaven, as it is divined for us and we return to God.

In infinite Love

The Author

Jahn J Kassl, born in 1965, serves as a channel for spiritual light realms of All-that-Is, after his direct spiritual access was opened in 2005. Since then, almost on a daily basis, messages are being transmitted to him. In 2009 the author was asked to form the Lichtweltverlag, so that the messages can find a wider distribution. This enables individuals to directly participate in the light filled reality of the heaven and watch the author personally during his work. As «God's scribe» his most important task is to pass on the transmitted messages accurately, clearly and without comments.

Jahn J Kassl is a way shower, in order to accompany individuals on the way into the Light and to assist them during the transformation into the new reality of being. The author lives in Vienna, Austria, since 1983.
